

NEWS RELEASE

It gives us great pleasure to announce that American General Supplies, Inc. (AGS) will have a display booth at the 41st African Airlines Association (AFRAA) Annual General Assembly to be held from November 22nd to 24th, 2009 in Maputo, Mozambique at Chissano International Conference Center hosted by Lam Mozambique Airlines.

At our display booth, we will be updating our existing and future customers with our current capabilities and services.

During the dignified occasion, where the CEOs of the African Airlines and other notable personalities will be present, AGS will also be hosting a luncheon for all participating members and attendees.

At this opportune time, we would like to extend our appreciation to our valued customers who have been with us through thick and thin following our development and we invite all other potential customers to give us an opportunity to serve their Airlines.

Thank you all for your continued patronage and interest in American General Supplies, Inc.
