

In March 2008, Mr. Kassa Maru, Chairman and President of American General Supplies, Inc., was recognized for his long-standing and valued support to African Airlines by African Aviation, Africa's Aviation Industry Journal.

Mr. Kassa Maru was nominated to receive the African Aviation Individual Achievement Award for outstanding services to African Aviation Development. The African Aviation Award was presented to Mr. Kassa Maru by Mr. Nick Fadugba, Publisher and CEO of African Aviation, during the annual African Aviation Gala Dinner held in Cairo, Egypt.

Mr. Nick Fadugba commended Mr. Kassa Maru by saying that he “is an exemplary example of a leading executive in the African Aviation industry who has made a major impact on the international stage. He established a track-record at a leading African Airline company before launching a thriving private aviation company based in Maryland, USA”.